Foreword

IN building the 1946 Scottie, three elements have molded and determined its structure: beauty, simplicity, and the presentation of a true record of the year's activity. We have used "music" as our theme. Shelley, in one of his short melodious songs, wrote:

"MUSIC WHEN SOFT VOICES DIE, VIBRATES IN THE MEMORY."

We believe our yearbook represents to a greater degree the idea expressed so beautifully by the beloved English poet. The Scottie is a book of memories that will live long after our graduation day.

All we ask is that this book preserves for you, individually, that which represents your happiest moments at Scott Twp. High School.

I·Am Music

Servant and master am I·Through me spirits immortal speak·I am the incense upon which prayers
oat to heaven: I am the smoke that palls ver the field of battle·I am close to the arriage alter, and when the graves open stand nearby·I call the wanderer home nd I rescue the soul from the depths ·
One I serve as I serve all: and the King make my slave as easily as I subject this lave·I speak through the bird of the air· e insects of the field·the crash of water n rock-ribbed shores·the sighing of wind nthe trees·and I am even heard by the soul.
natknows me in the clatter of wheels on ity streets··I·Am·Music :

Class Song

To the tune of "Till The End of Time"
Lyrics by Patty Daubie and Lois Evans

'Till the end of time,
Long as memory exists,
Long as there's a blue and golden hue
Recalling years of bliss.
'Till the end of time,
When our youth has dwindled through,
Let memory bring forth thoughts of friendship
And friends all dear and true.
'Till the dust of time,
Dims our sight of olden days
We'll see clearly still in years to come
Our old Scott Township High.
So here's goodby to Alma Mater
We really hate to leave,
But you'll be with us always
'Till the end of time.

"The Big Five"

Our Stars

HANEY

BILL HANEY—"Bill" 5' 8"—145 lbs. . . . Curly hair, easy going, good on a basketball court, and always seen with a smile. Claims he lives in "Rook Manor".

SCHRADER

CHARLES SCHRADER—"Chuck" 5' 7"—145 lbs. . . . Played at the guard post. Liked to work out on centers. Found in Chartiers Terrace, "when not around 'Bluff Street' ". "How's she treating you Chuck?"

LEWIS

BOB LEWIS—"Deacon" 6'—175 lbs. . . . A swell center on the basketball team but would make a poor time keeper. "What's the score, Bob?" Just call him EAGLE EYE.

DEMPSTER

HARRY DEMPSTER—"Herky" 5' 6"—135 lbs. . . . Short and dynamic. One of the fighting five. Specializes in "Long Shots". Someday MAY become a famous salesman for "Goodyear" if he doesn't sidetrack and sell "Snuggies".

LANE

JAMES LANE—"Vinnie" 5' 11"—210 lbs. . . . Famous for his Fords. Tough tackle with a swell personality. One of the founders of the "NOSE CLUB."

Our Stars

HRABOVSKY

JAMES HRABOVSKY—"Jim" 5' 10"—160 lbs. . . . Smart quarterback on the football field and can whip the old pigskin around the basketball court in his position as a forward. Was awarded the "watch" for the "Most Valuable Player."

MUZZIE

VICTOR MUZZIE—"Vick" 5' 10"—195 lbs. . . . Tackle that lives high on "Rook Terrace—Aristocrat Hill." Could be seen in his Model "A" until the friction got too great between his Ford and a Blue Ridge Bus.

MODECK

CLEMENS MODECK—"Clem" 5' 10½"—165 lbs. . . . Hails from "BOWER HILL." Did very well as a tackle this year and proved himself useful on a football field, even though he wasn't a "brain" in "Senior Science."

LEININGER

JOHN LEININGER—"Fats" 6'—220 lbs. . . . Tackle, was a sub for varsity. Came in handy in lots of games. A "STAR" in the "MT. LEBANON GAME." Favorite pastime is spent reading "Esquire". "WOW"
